

Josie Scioli is Deputy City Manager, Corporate Services at the City of Toronto where she provides strategic leadership to the City's Facilities Management, Strategic Business Management, Real Estate Services, Fleet Services, 311 Toronto, Information & Information Technology and Environment & Energy divisions.

In this role, she manages to consistently apply her strong customer service focus to every initiative, whilst simultaneously driving transformational change and achieving competitive organizational results.

Josie Scioli holds a Bachelor of Economics and Commerce from the University of Toronto and brings a wealth of experience from both the public and private sectors.

Prior to joining the City of Toronto, Josie was a senior executive at Toronto Community Housing where she led the maintenance and construction service delivery portfolio. There she redefined its core services, reinforced a facilities management framework and created a "customer first" philosophy to build a high-performing culture.
